

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

6th Annual Bachelor Bid for Charity Planned for this Saturday at Circuit City Building Across from Crabtree!

Raleigh, NC – Come one, come all across from the mall! The secret location of the 6th Annual Bid for Charity benefiting the Women's Center of Wake County is revealed. This spectacular event will take place in the Circuit City building on Glenwood Ave. across from Crabtree Valley Mall. The event begins at 7:00 pm and the fun last thru 1:00 am.

A Depression Era theme, Speakeasy and Casino: A night of good guys and bad boys..., this event has something for everyone! From dancing to the smooth sounds of the Stanley Baird Group featuring Yolanda Rabun & DJ Island Sound, to trying your hand at the 'tables'...it's sure to be the best party in town! Peruse the Raffle tables of amazing packages including Travel, Fashion, Fitness, Personal Development, Romance plus Wine & Spirits.

The highlight of the night?..... a LIVE auction of 21 of Raleigh's finest, hand-picked, most eligible bachelors. Want to get to know them first? Spend a little time in the Bachelor Playground, or buy a dance or a photo with your favorite guy! And for every bidder, we have a beautiful 1995 Mercedes SL500 donated for LIVE auction. Everyone is sure to drive away happy!

Tickets are $35 in advance and $50 at the door and can be purchased online by visiting www.bachelorbidforcharity.com. <<http://www.bachelorbidforcharity.com>>

Tickets are also available at any one of the following ticket outlets: Abbeygail's ReChic Boutique on Hillsborough Street, Quail Ridge Books at Ridgewood Shopping Center and City Gate Real Estate in Glenwood South.

100% of the proceeds go to benefit the Women's Center of Wake County for homeless and impoverished women and children.

About The Women's Center of Wake County

The Women's Center of Wake County, Inc. started over twenty years ago as a grass roots movement to meet the needs of women re-entering the community from prison. Over the course of those 30+ years, the Center has responded to the changing needs of women, expanding and providing services as indicated by the women in our community. Over the last 16 years, the Center has shifted focus in response to the most critical needs of women, addressing the growing issue of homelessness for women with children and single women. For more information, visit www.wcwc.org <<http://www.wcwc.org>> <<http://www.wcwc.org>> .

About The Wild, Wacky, Wonderful Women of the World

The Wild, Wacky, Wonderful Women of the World is a not for profit networking group for women ages 21- 101! We are women who are trusted, admired and respected by our peers; who are committed to honorable causes and are masters at having FUN! We lend our support whenever and wherever we can. The strength of the Wild, Wacky, Wonderful Women of the World network lies in the shared trust, the open lines of communication and the expansive referral network. We are supported by personal interaction at monthly gatherings on the First Saturday morning of each month and Third Thursday evenings as well as by enhanced Web site capabilities. W5er's have a long tradition of promoting and delivering the highest personal, professional and ethical standards in everything they do while encompassing an unmatched zeal for life and an ultimate goal of finding the joy in daily living! For more information, visit www.wildwackywonderfulwomenoftheworld.com

<<http://www.wildwackywonderfulwomenoftheworld.com>
<<http://www.wildwackywonderfulwomenoftheworld.com>> > .

Contact:

Jane Tobia

Asst. Director for the Women's Center of Wake County

919.829.3711

###